ONE-TWO PUNCH

Arista's Clive Davis does a Swifty Lazar this week by hosting his annual hot ticket pre-Grammy shindig, and the man has plenty to celebrate, including the fact we weren't invited. For what seems like months, Davis' label has dominated the first two spots on the album charts with the record-shattering "Bodyguard" soundtrack and Kenny G's "Breathless." Of course, all that means is he has a longer way to fall after this Contents nod.

I DON'T KNOW WHY

FROM HER NEWEST
COLLECTION OF SONGS
"FAT CITY"

Listen once and you'll know
why.

*She won a Grammy for her debut album.
But that was just for openers.
Now, with I Don't Know Why,
Shawn Colvin*

*"...delivers a direct hit to the heart."
-Time Magazine*

*I Don't Know Why
"is destined to be a pop standard."
-Billboard*

Newsweek raves "...Colvin's voice is a pure, flute-like breath."

The Daily News says "...her lyrics aim at capturing emotions in tight phrases like poetry."

Her sold out tours, appearances on the "Tonight Show" and "Late Night with David Letterman" and the critical acclaim for "Fat City" are making Shawn Colvin one of the premier artists of her generation.

GRAMMY WHAMMY!!!!

Oh Boy!!!

Boy George: "Crying Game" Most Added of the week.

Advertisement

It was a Grammy Awards to remember — at least until the next morning — as the legendary Eric Clapton became even more legendary capturing the lion's share of trophies including Record Of The Year, Album Of The Year and Song Of The Year. k.d. lang scored in the Best Pop Vocal Female while Celine Dion & Peabo Bryson took Best Pop Vocal Performance Duo Or Group honors. In the main category of the night, NARAS President Michael Greene's speech clocked in at 5:57. Here's a winners' list which will undoubtedly be more accurate in Billboard:

- RECORD OF THE YEAR: "Tears In Heaven," Eric Clapton
- ALBUM OF THE YEAR: "Unplugged," Eric Clapton
- SONG OF THE YEAR: "Tears In Heaven," Eric Clapton, Will Jennings
- NEW ARTIST: Arrested Development
- POP VOCAL, FEMALE: k.d. lang
- POP VOCAL, MALE: Eric Clapton
- POP VOCAL, DUO OR GROUP: Celine Dion & Peabo Bryson
- BEST ALTERNATIVE ALBUM: Tom Waits
- BEST METAL ALBUM: Nine Inch Nails

- ROCK VOCAL, FEMALE: Melissa Etheridge
- ROCK VOCAL, MALE: Eric Clapton
- ROCK VOCAL, DUO OR GROUP: U2
- R&B VOCAL, MALE: Al Jarreau
- R&B VOCAL, FEMALE: Chaka Khan
- R&B VOCAL, DUO OR GROUP: Boyz II Men
- RAP, SOLO: Sir Mix-A-Lot
- RAP, DUO OR GROUP: Arrested Development
- COUNTRY VOCAL, FEMALE: Mary-Chapin Carpenter
- COUNTRY VOCAL, MALE: Vince Gill
- COUNTRY VOCAL, DUO OR GROUP: Emmylou Harris & The Nash Ramblers
- BEST POLKA RECORDING: Walter Ostanek
- PRODUCER OF THE YEAR: (tie) Daniel Lanois & Brian Eno and L.A. Reid & Babyface

As always, we suggest you consult the good trades for a complete list of Grammy winners.

PIC OF THE WEEK

Rivers Runs Through It

Look at that. It's disgusting!!! Someone like that shouldn't be allowed out in public, let alone on Television!!! Will someone PLEASE do SOMETHING about Joan Rivers (r) before it's too late!!! Oh yeah, that's the incredible transvestite/Tommy Boy recording artist RuPaul with Joan.

Quick Hits

The Most Requested videos this week at The Box are #1 Dr. Dre (Deth R/Int/Atl G), #2 Ice Cube (Priority), #3 Eazy E (Priority), #4 Half Pint (On Top), #5 2 Live Crew (Luke), #6 Denis Leary (A&M), #7 Whitney Houston "I Will" (Arista), #8 Snow (East-West/Atl G), #9 Naughty By Nature (Tommy Boy) and #10 TLC (LaFace/Arista).

WILD CARD

DEPECHE MODE
SIRE/REPRISE

The PoMo Kings are back with a hot video exploding at MTV and the first single pulling big numbers in pre-release radio markets. KROQ explodes 21-5, KWOD 30-16, 99X debbs @14, while adds include KEGL, WENZ, CK105 & KJ103. Retail orders on the album are going through the roof as Rich Fitzgerald & co are ready to move in for the big-bucks kill. Can anyone say Top Ten?

Shulman A Giant Again

Derek "And The Dominoes" Shulman will head a new, as yet unnamed record label under the auspices of the Warner Bros.-distributed Giant label, it was announced by not-so-gentle Giant owner Irving Azoff, Warner Board Chairman Mo Ostin and Warner President Lenny Waronker.

Most recently Chairman of Atco Records, Shulman began his career as a member of the British band Simon Dupress & the Big Sound, known for their '67 Finnish hit single, "The Kvetching Game." Shulman went on to become lead singer and manager of groundbreaking progressive rock groups the Thamesmen, the New Thamesmen and Gentle Giant.

Shulman joined PolyGram in 1982, rising to Sr. VP of A&R, where he was instrumental in the signing of such acts as Bon Jovi, Cinderella, Tears for Fears, Kingdom Come and the Randy Roberts Skin Flute Orches- tra. In 1988, Shulman moved to Atco, where he had success with AC/DC and new acts such as Michel'le, Enuff Z'Nuff, Pantera, Dream Theater and others.

Commented Azoff: "Derek is a man of vision, experience and boundless energy, three qualities you good-for-nothing loafers would never understand."

Added Ostin: "Who's Derek Shulman? More importantly, who the hell is Irving Azoff?"

WB Chairman Mo Ostin (l) and Giant giant Irving Azoff (r) hope Derek Shulman's new gig will enable him to buy some new clothes. Azoff offered no excuse for his wardrobe.

Two Self Promoting Photos Of Us Giving To Charity

In the photo on the left, HITS Operations Manager Anita Webb (l) and Executive Editor Toni Profera (r) present AIDS Project Los Angeles Director of Development William Jones with a check for $8,725 — proceeds from our Year-End issue. A check for the same amount was presented to LIFEbeat, the music industry's AIDS organization. Since Bill was such a cool guy -- and because we're giving people -- Anita and Toni are shown in the photo on the right presenting Bill with a toaster as a special parting gift. We apologized to Bill because we had already given the patio furniture to the person who sells bagels in the morning. Despite the check, Bill quickly learned to hate us.

Quick Hits

MTV action this week includes adds on Run DMC (Profile), Drivin' N' Cryin' (Island/PLG), Neneh Cherry (Virgin), Joey Lawrence (Impact/MCA), Sunscreen (Columbia), Silk (Keia/Elektra), Dinosaur Jr. (Sire/WB), Flotsam & Jetsam (MCA) and Blind Melon (Capitol). Rotation increases go to Faith No More (Slash/Reprise), Duran Duran (Capitol), Naughty By Nature (Tommy Boy) and Jeremy Jordan (Giant). Soul Asylum (Columbia) goes into Buzz Bin.

MCA/GRP 4 POP & A/C

MCA/GRP Records has been launched as a new label dedicated to pop, adult contemporary and urban artists, it was announced by GRP President Larry "The War of the" Rosen. GRP was co-founded by Rosen and composer Dave Grusin and was acquired by MCA in 1990.

MCA/GRP's first release will be the American debut of Latvian-born Russian superstar Laima, slated for March 16. The singer's previous album sold over 20 million units in the former Soviet Union and Eastern Europe.

Some of the label's artists, such as Patti Austin and Rob Wasserman, will move over to the new venture.

Added MCA Records President Richard Palmese: "This new label will create opportunities for select new product to be worked by both GRP and MCA, opening up exciting new possibilities... and it gives me the perfect excuse to take an all-expenses-paid business trip to Moscow."

O Cara Mia

Irene Cara has been awarded $1.5 million in royalties and damages, ending a ten-year battle against her former label, Network Records and Al Coury Inc. Cara claimed the two companies withheld royalties earned from three albums, including the "Flashdance" soundtrack and her career was severely damaged in the process. After paying off her legal fees, Cara was left with $1.76.

Oh Nona!

That's Third Stone/Atlantic artist Nona Gaye, shown with renowned designer Giorgio Armani, whose overpriced clothes have become so hyped that he can now put his label on the J.C. Penney line and sell it to you clowns for tons of greenbacks. Nona is seen telling the Giorg-man he's spending a little too much time in the ol' tanning booth.

PLG's Vicki & Joe Show

Meet Vicki Leben and Joe Riccitelli, star of PLG's new daytime gabfest, "The Vicki & Joe Show," produced by the label's Executive Vice President and Producer John Barbis.

On today's program, Vicki, most recently VP Promotion at Zoo, is spirited away to PLG by the lure of big bucks (and the opportunity to yell at Danny Ostrow) to become Vice President of CHR Promotion. Riccitelli, previously PLG's Senior Director of Promotion, gets the same title, only to discover the two are also sharing the same office, telephone, FAX machine, secretary, company credit card and duties, which include creating and implementing strategies and activities for all of PLG's roster of artists at the Top 40 format.

You'll guffaw at the slapstick mishaps that result when both try to get through Barbis' door for a meeting at the same time. You'll howl as they each manage to sneak onto the stage to play with Ricky Ricardo's band at the club. Oh sorry, that's "I Love Lucy." (Ed Note: And you'll puke as this incredibly lame story goes for one more paragraph.)

Commented executive producer Barbis: "Vicki has wonderful relationships at radio. Joe has proven himself an invaluable asset to PLG's promotion effort. I have worked with Vicki in the past and have wanted to get her on board at PLG for a long time. This advancement acknowledges Joe's growth within the PLG family. And they're cousins, identical cousins, all the way..."

Joe Riccitelli:
Makes Ostrow look good.

Vicki Leben:
Ready for her close-up.

"Voice" Choices

Arrested Development topped the list of Best Albums of '92 in the annual and still as pretentious as ever Village Voice "Pazz & Jop" poll of 250 of the country's leading music critics. Rounding out the Top Ten were Pavement, R.E.M., PJ Harvey, Beastie Boys, Los Lobos, Sugar, Sonic Youth, Tom Waits and Base- head. The groundbreaking rap group also topped the singles list with its hit "Tennessee," while Pavement's "Watery, Domestic" was chosen top EP, Bob Marley's "Songs of Freedom" was named best reissue and Nirvana's "In Bloom," directed by Kevin Kerslake, was tapped as fave video.

Where Are The Others?

Virgin Records President Phil Quartararo (l) and Virgin Group Managing Director Ken Berry explain to new Virgin signee Tina Turner (c) and Half Pint & Batman of Virgin group Immature that EVERY small record company has five rulers, 18 Vice Presidents and massive headquarters that make you inclined to ask for a table for two in the non-smoking section. After this photo was taken, Mr. Berry promptly went searching for something to sell Jim Fifield for a sizable chunk of change.

Quick Hits

The Most Added singles this week at Top 40 are #1 Boy George (SBK/ERG), #2 Joey Lawrence (Impact/MCA), #3 Sade (Epic), #4

Shawn Colvin (Columbia) and #5 Whitney Houston (Arista). Faith No More (Slash/Reprise) also had a strong week.

IRS Goes Bolan

Barbara Bolan "Balls" has been appointed General Manager of IRS Records by the label's President/Co-Founder Jay "Bee By" Boberg. Bolan "For Dollars" was most recently Sr. VP Sales and Marketing for the company. Might as well get used to it, folks, we're going to run this one into the gutter.

Barbara Bolan: Performs a mean "Bang A Gong."

Said Boberg: "This is the kind of placement I get for taking your Sr. Editor to the Clipper game and treating him to 127 Louisiana red-hots and three cotton candies? I want a refund!!"

Commented Bolan before taking the skinheads to the local alley: "Has it really been ten years? It seems like only yesterday I was buying leather bikini briefs for Lux Interior, paying Wazmo Nariz's rent and tutoring Michael Stipe on politics."

MCA vs. Curb

MCA Records, Inc., filed a complaint in L.A. Superior Court last Friday (19) for Declaratory Relief against the Curb Music Company regarding master recordings label artists Naomi and Wynonna Judd had previously made for RCA (now BMG) Records. The action also covers payment of artist royalties and promotion costs related to other MCA/Curb artists.

MCA has had an independent production and licensing agreement with Curb Music since 1983. In 1988, the agreement was amended to include the master recordings of the Judds, who had previously been signed to RCA.

An MCA spokesperson insisted the action was "an attempt to clarify... [and] strengthen, not weaken, the joint efforts of MCA and Curb."

Added MCA attorney Don Engel: "A Complaint for Declaratory Relief is an expedited procedure to resolve disputes. MCA is making no request for damages and is making no attempt to terminate the existing agreement between MCA and Curb. That piece of information'll cost you $2,500."

Our Gal Ivana

That's RCA recording artist Freddie Jackson hanging with the incredibly talented Ivana Trump just before Ivana went scouting the room looking for billionaires to marry, divorce and eventually bad-mouth the hell out of them. Unable to find those millionaires, Ivana went searching for some sheep.

Nicolette & Others

Actress Nicolette Sheridan is pictured (3rd from l). Yessiree, that's actress Nicolette Sheridan (pictured 3rd from l). Hey, will you look at that, it's actress Nicolette Sheridan (pictured 3rd from l). Anyone notice actress Nicolette Sheridan (pictured 3rd from l)? Oh yeah, that's Columbia President Don Jenner, Manager Louis Levin, Michael Bolton and BMI's Kelly Horde and Dexter Moore getting in the way.

Quick Hits

VH-1 adds this week are Vanessa Williams/Brian McKnight (Giant), Dina Carroll (A&M) and Go West (Chrys/ERG). Mick Jagger

(Atl/Atl G) is in Five Star rotation and Sting (P Pk/WB) is named the Artist Of The Month.

HBO Ices T

HBO has put its late-night comedy series starring rapper Ice-T on ice, citing exorbitant costs and creative differences. Officials insist the dropping of the show had nothing to do with Warner Bros. Records' decision to sever its seven-year relationship with Ice-T last month after the controversy over "Cop Killer." HBO and Warner Bros. Records are both units of Time Warner, Inc. Coincidence or sinister threat to our rights of free speech and artistic expression? You be the judge.

"Ice-TV" was designed as a tribute to the blaxploitation films of the '70s such as "Shaft" and "Superfly," with the host and guests screening clips from the movies and commenting on them. All the shows were filmed at Ice-T's home with the likes of Quincy Jones, Little Richard and a member of 2 Live Crew. HBO claimed the shows featured more talk than they wanted and the costs for clearance on the film clips was prohibitive." Ice-T's new album, "Home Invasion," originally slated for release on Sire/WB, will come out on Priority Records next month.

Neil Prays

Neil Sedaka has written a film script based on his life and reportedly sees John Cusack in the starring role.

Keep dreaming, Neil. Guess Paul Williams and Danny Devito were both busy.

Apology To A Trade God

It has come to our attention that Billboard god Geoff Mayfield was upset over our comment that he had his lips affixed to the esteemed butt of Billboard Chief Timothy White. Well, loving Geoff as we do (and aspiring to his sense of humor), we'd like to apologize -- Geoff Mayfield does NOT kiss Timothy White's butt!! And, caring for Geoff as we do, we'd like to beg Timbo not to sit down too quickly -- in order to protect Geoff's nose.

Quick Hits

The Top Ten best selling singles of the week are #1 Whitney Houston (Arista), #2 Dr. Dre (DR/Int/PR/AtI G), #3 Snow (EastWest/Columbia), #4 Bryson/Belle (Columbia), #5 Digable Planets (Pendulum/Elektra), #6 Positive K (Island/PLG), #7

Duran Duran (Capitol), #8 Arrested Development (Chrys/ERG), #9 Silk (Elektra) and #10 Naughty By Nature (Tommy Boy). Michael Jackson's "Heal The World" (Epic) continues to do big business.

The Michael Jackson juggernaut is continuing at full steam, with chattermongers chattering seriously about negotiations for a forthcoming U.S. tour. Meanwhile, there's talk of the self-proclaimed King Of Pop joining the "Unplugged" crowd. If that goes down, will it be syndicated on a national level?... So why is Manager Sandy Gallin smiling? Hey, if everyone was calling you Einstein, you'd be happy, too... Wonderers busy wondering if the appointment of Geraldine Laybourne to MTV Networks Vice Chairman has even bigger implications than meets the press release... Columbia topper Don Ienner's taking a hands-on, personal approach to the forthcoming soundtrack to Arnold Schwarzenegger's massively buzzed-about "Last Action Hero." Look for rock & roll's very elite to add even more muscle to Arnold's latest project. We're talking heavy... Speaking of Columbia, longtime Arista-crat Mitchell Cohen jumps to the label's A&R corps... Last Wednesday's L.A. Times features a story about Mike Fine's reaction to the manipulation of the Soundscan charts. Industry buzzing is reaching fever pitch at presstime... Pre-Grammy pow-wow of West Coast heavyweights in Smogtown points to a very strong industry to commitment to fledgling music industry AIDS service organization LIFEbeat... From the "Heeey Buddy" file comes the question, is Charlie Minor's move to Jeff McClusky's promotion empire a done deal?... Then there's the tale of one hot West Coast Vice President of Promotion, reportedly unhappy in his present digs and searching for greener pastures... Mike Murphy jumps to Prince's Paisley world as the Purple One's Top 40 Promo domo... Meanwhile, look for Kenny Buttice to assume the Promo post of the Madonna-helmed Maverick imprint... Final buzzing from Promoland has discounters discounting rumors of Peter Napoliello assuming the currently occupied chair of one label's Promo leader... Airplay diva Stacy Earl is shopping for a new home... And speaking of talent scouts, one label is aggressively looking to fill a number of A&R spots, but finding few qualified ears willing to make the jump... Lots of industry freeloaders wondering why they got to freeload this year at three Time-Warner label parties instead of the usual combined effort... Yes, that rumored-about David Foster label deal is about to go down... From the Change Of Strategy file comes word that George Michael has decided to appear in his own videos and use his image in graphics for his forthcoming Freddie Mercury charity tribute five-song EP on Hollywood... Names in the Rumor Mill this week: Ruben Rodriguez, Sean Coakley, Don Muller, Ray Carlton and John Fagot.

FAR TRUTHS

By Rachel Felder, New York

Andy Karp

Lenny:
As I am sure you are well aware, I am always looking out for the best interests of your fine magazine. How I might assist in boosting its circulation without trying to convince Andrea to advertise more I don't have a death wish, you know... I soon realized what HITS needs is a steady flow of rock stars and breasts.

I have procured a photo that contains all the aforementioned nouns, with Atlantic VP Promotion Danny Buch, Kip Winger, MTV's Andy Schuon and his wife Desiree (va-va-voom! hubba-hubba).

I can guarantee you the closer you run this photo to the front of the magazine, the less Danny Buch will nag me. Lenny, you are a great man and you owe it to yourself to print this photo. In the words of another great, great man, "Everything I do, I do it for you."

Sincerely,
Andrew Karp
Atlantic Promotion

Lenny replies: Three small words, Andrew. Get a life.

Dawn of the Dead

Dear Connie:
Imagine my delight and surprise when I turned to page 15 of HITS (2/8/93), and saw the picture.

I have dreamed of this day since September of '87, the first time I saw a HITS magazine. Thanks for making this happen. P.S. Would you suggest therapy for me????

All my best,
Dawn Fox
Motown Records

Connie replies: Three small words, Dawn. What a loser!!

Dream of Fields

Dear Dave:
Just wanted to let you know that life is a little less grand in N.Y. these days without Danny Fields' column. Sure, it's nice to get the juice from Rachel Felder... but what about the fish mousse and pate, etc.? Can't we rate two N.Y.-based columns? Anyway, HITS remains a "must read" in this office. Keep it up.

Regards,
Kathy Gillis
Virgin Records

Dave replies: First off, Kathy, we love Danny and don't you worry about him. He's currently working with Paul Prudhomme and Madonna on a new photo book, "1,001 Things To Do With Blackened Catfish."

Blurry Vision

Dear HITS Magazine Photography Editor:

I am a Rock Concert Photographer. I have recently shot numerous signed bands on a non-exclusive assignment for local media. I would like to submit some of these shots for your consideration. I would also like to arrange to show you my portfolio. Who should I contact for possible future assignments?

Sincerely,
Perrin (Kari) Kelling
East Aurora, N. Y.

HITS replies: Sorry Perrin, our Photo Editor is busy going through outtakes from the Marky Mark book, but from the looks of this sample, you'd probably be better off learning how to focus the camera first.

Usually I don't begin this column with label-hopping execs, but the following bit of news is worth an exception: Mitchell Cohen is leaving Arista after fifteen years to do A&R for Columbia. I guess he missed bumping into Melani Rogers in the elevator... I won't bore you with all the gory details of my weekend at Gavin (hey, this is the New York column), but I will mention a couple of my favorite moments: gabbing backstage at the Kitchens of Distinction/Suzanne Vega show with Larry Weintraub, Jeff Suhy, Alan Wolmark, and John Wesley Harding; hanging at the cool Warners party at Rough Trade with Robin Hurley, Bev Chin, Marc Brown, Jo Linardi, Cathy Lin- coln, Jim Neill and American Music Club's Mark Eitzel; and — of course — the King Missile gig, with Tim Sommer, Seth Gershman, Kris Metzdorf and loads of others in attendance... Silliest party gimmick of the week: A head-shaving barber at new 'zine Nerve's party for their Sinead O'Connor-covered launch issue. What's next? A Screaming Trees all-you-can-eat Conner Bros. buffet?... It doesn't take a rocket scientist to figure out what new Amsterdam-based band a couple of cool A&R people are checking out on their own turf this week... Seen at the Belltower show at CB's: Jim McNeil, Pete Rosenblum, David Staff, Tim Carr and Domenique Leomporra. I'm still curious as to why no one's talking about the band's quite good debut album (out on EastWest), sort of a shoegazing version of Belly... Here's two new names for this column: Chris McEwen and Daniel Rothblatt. New fathers Joe and David are doing just fine... Everytime I go to the Limelight, I swear I'm never going back. I broke my vow once again for the Sunscreem/Inspiral Carpets show, and complained to Jon Leshay, Shelby Meade, Lisa Frank, Todd Bisson, Arthur Levy, Lisa Frank, Jim Henke and Jeff Jones... I'm so excited that the Auteurs — British press darlings, sort of the Only Ones-meet-the Kinks — are coming over in April to support their Caroline debut. Look for them at CB's right before tax day... I don't use the "L" word (lemming," that is), but if I did, I'd use it to describe the audience members at the Head showcase at CB's last week, including Kevin Patrick, Peter Robinson, Craig Kallman and (once again) Tim Carr... I've heard some demos for the new PJ Harvey album, and they're amazing... The coolest transaction in ages: Columbia's Silverfish getting Henry Rollins one of their lovely band T-shirts. Its cheerful slogan? "HITS/TITS/LIPS/POWER." (Rumor — seriously — has it that Madonna's had one for ages.) Personally, it's a motto I'd rather see splashed across the chest of, say, Wynonna Judd than Rollins, but hey, you take what you can get... It's worth checking out the Quicksand album, "Slip," just out on Polydor. As long as you play it loud, it's way cool.

Fit To A T-Shirt

Madonna: "HITS, Tits, Lips, Power."

PRIORITY
RECORDS

Jagger's

EDGE

It's cold and snowy above the Mason-Dixon line, a fact that gives Mick Jagger much amusement. "I'm not even going to tell you where I am," the possessor of rock & roll's most famous set of lips teases. OK, he's in the West Indies, one of the many exotic climes he lists as occasional residences. But don't regard Jagger as some suntanned slacker — especially not this year when, in addition to turning 50, he's put out his third solo album, "Wandering Spirit," and already begun working on a new Rolling Stones album, with another of the group's blockbuster and record-setting tours planned for 1994.

Interestingly, "Wandering Spirit" is the first Jagger outing conceived and released in a peaceful environment; his previous releases sparked a feud between the singer/pop icon and his childhood friend Keith Richards, with the Glimmer Twins sniping at each other in the press before patching things up in late 1988. The calm shows in the new album, which was co-produced by Rick Rubin. Easily Jagger's best solo work, "Wandering Spirit" is a broad record that finds him shimmying through funk, R&B, country, gospel and some fire-one rockers that remind you this is the man who sang "Satisfaction" and "Jumping Jack Flash." The Mickster apparently feels the same way as he puts down his piña colada just long enough to chat with HITS' snowbound Motown man and misfiring Piston fan, Gary "Litho" Graff.

"Wandering Spirit" has such a broad range of styles, almost like a smorgasbord of what you've explored in the past. Is that by design?
I don't know, really. I didn't really set out to say, "OK, I'm gonna do a broad piece." I think it's just how it comes out when you write. Also, maybe it's because I wrote a larger amount of songs for this record and had a bigger choice to pick from.

Is it easier to get that breadth on your own albums than it is on a Rolling Stones record?
Sometimes it can. But perhaps you don't always want to go for a very eclectic record. You might want to focus on one thing, rather like Charlie Watts doing Charlie Parker [laughs]. I'm not taking a piss at him. But that's one direction that can appeal to you when you do a solo record. Mine didn't work out like that; I came up with a lot of other different styles and tried to hang them together.

Do you worry about whether they will hang together in the end?
You rehearse the tunes, and you can tell. You know if it's working or not. The way I could have done it was to use a lot more musicians, given the fact that there are so many different styles. I could have brought in country musicians to go one way, then R&B guys to go another way. I didn't really do that. I tried to work with a core group so it would stitch together a little.

It's not something I feel a little bit out on a limb with. I'm familiar with the styles I'm doing, so even though they're stylistically different, it's not a particularly difficult task to switch from one to another. I'm happy within them.

Your main collaborators on "Wandering Spirit" are [producer] Rick Rubin and [guitarist] Jimmy Rip. How did you connect with them?
Jimmy I've known for a while. I met him when I was doing a Bette Midler video for her version of "Beast Of Burden" — I ended up getting custard pie in the mouth. He was in the backing band on the video and we got on well. It's nice to have someone to bounce ideas around with.

I first met Rick — I forget which year — but it was around the same period, really. He'd just finished doing some LL Cool J record at that point, and I think he had done the first Beastie Boys record. I saw him in New York and he was just out of college. Then he went to Los Angeles and started getting more into rock & roll. He did the Chili Peppers record, some garage bands. I'd done some stuff on my own, some of which is on the album, then I thought, "Well, I think I want to work with someone as a producer," and I thought he might be a good person. It was tentative at the beginning. He's characterized the relationship as confrontational. [Laughs.] I don't know. Maybe. Maybe it's my long history [laughs]. I don't think that's true all the time. I prepare to work in a cooperative mode. You do have differences in any kind of creative process when you're working with someone else. I don't like confronting people with things; I tend to back away from it. But you have to occasionally say, "This is what I think, this is the way I think it should be" and so on. Otherwise it could go on and on. Were there particular points of contention in your relationship with Rick? He tells this story where, in the end, he has me saying, "You're worse than Keith!" I didn't in fact say it that way. The context was, "You're worse than Keith in so far as you don't like any electronic instruments." He hated anything that was made after 1962. There are quite a few people now, still in their 20s, who have this very kind of purist view of rock & roll which I don't share. I find it touching but alarming. There are a lot of things on the record that don't fall into Rick's purview of music, so it was kind of a different experience for him as well. When people come into the studio to work with you, do they have preconceived notions about Mick Jagger? I'm sure they have their own ideas they bring with them. I don't know what they are; I don't go around asking them that. I try to get the best I can and have the best time I can. Sometimes it's great and easy; sometimes it's difficult. I don't know really what prejudices or what baggage people bring in. They have a lot, that's for sure. I think a lot of times people try to play like the Rolling Stones, which is very difficult [laughs]. "Uh oh, he's doing that again. Don't do that like Charlie does, please. You don't have to." So how is making a solo album different than doing a Stones record? In a lot of ways, it's not really all that different. I am aware that I'm where the buck stops; if I say there's something I really don't want, then it doesn't happen. You can also say that about a Rolling Stones album; we're not going to do a song I really don't like or believe in. In the end, [the solo album] is not so much a cooperative event — but in some ways it is. It's not just writing out a piece of music and typing it into a computer. There are other people there with opinions and they're not afraid to voice them vociferously. Are the Stones at peace with the notion of side projects and solo albums? I don't know. Keith made a lot of noise about not doing solo projects and now he seems to do them all the time [laughs].

“WHEN I GOT TO DOING TH...

MICK JAGGER: NOW...

Ronnie has always done things outside the band. I think Charlie enjoys doing things very much; I think he gets bored if he only has Rolling Stones stuff to do. I think everyone is more or less, as you say, very at peace doing them. How did you hook up with Lenny Kravitz for "Use Me"? I got to know Lenny in London a little bit on his last tour, and I did a duet with him onstage in Paris. When he came to Los Angeles, I don't know if it was Rick's idea or mine... We were looking to do something with "Use Me," and we thought it might be interesting to try a duet instead of just a straight single-voice piece. It was just one of those things; he wasn't like a complete stranger walking into the studio. We'd already heard how the voices were together. Fortunately, it worked. It's just a bit of a crap shoot, that duet stuff. It's interesting that you used Flea to play styles of bass that are very different from what he does in the Chili Peppers. Definitely, and he seems to enjoy all that. The style he plays in is normally pretty hard, very different than this. He's technically, a very good bass player, a very creative guy. Are you planning your own solo tour? I don't think I'm going to do any extensive touring at this point. I might do something, but nothing I want to impart right now. It's not going to be some big solo tour... I'll do some promotion for "Wandering Spirit," then go on and start writing the Stones' next album. What are the Stones' plans right now? It depends. Some of these Stones albums we work very much on our own before the record comes together. The last one, "Steel Wheels," was very much a songwriting collaboration, but usually we try to prepare a bunch of stuff so there are things to work on. Some of the songs are half-done or maybe just ideas. I like to go in with something, then we just sit down to collaborate and write. Any thoughts on turning 50 later this year? You don't know if you're going to make it, do you? I don't really have a lot of thoughts on it. It's not something that occupies my every thought. I don't want to give you any big quotes or anything, but when I got to be around 35, I realized that I was going to be doing this for quite a long time. ■

BE AROUND 35, I REALIZED THAT I WAS GOING TO BE FOR QUITE A LONG TIME."

POST TOASTED

By Ivana B. Adored

GO INSANE: It was the PoMo event of the season: Matthew Sweet was there (looking all buff and babe-like), so were E. Parthenon Huxley, David Wild, Steve Tipp and Cameron Crowe. A Goo Goo Dolls show? Bettie Serveert "Unplugged"? Nope. It was the most awesome, incredible Lindsey Buckingham show. Plan your life around his March tour. You'll thank me. And yes, he does do "Holiday Road".....

STU BERGEN:

His Promotion Is "Epic"!

Speaking of "rumours," loads of them are flying re: WEQX in Philadelphia going Top 40/Alternative (see 99X, WENZ). Excuse me, isn't there already a PoMo outlet in the market, programmed by somebodywithaclue? Should the future of the format be in the hands of opportunistic radio geeks who haven't been the same since the Urban Cowboy format went belly-up? Phoenix notwithstanding (in all fairness, it's too early to tell), what market can support two PoMo stations? Especially if they're being programmed by guys who have no feel for the music. This is a music-intensive format. Duh. Sure, come in and start a Classic New Wave station and call it Lifestyle Programming. Hire a bunch of Top 40 guys who claim they bought Sonic Youth's "Goo," declaring it the best debut album they'd heard since "Tim." I'd love to talk to Leshay about this, but I think he's on the phone with Sharkman and Blaze. Goofy radio names are sooo PoMo..... As of March 8th, Stu Bergen will be taking down his Joe Satriani gold record and Princeton diploma from the walls of his office at Relativity, sucking up a token from the subway turnstile, and venturing into the halls of Epic Records, where he'll be taking over the Alt. Promo chores. His first tasks will be to make sure Living Colour rules supreme, as it is so deserving, and to order Ivana a platinum record for the "Singles" soundtrack, as she is not quite so deserving..... Jellyfish debuts this week at #13, amidst great response from radio and retail, and much fawning from Rick Krim and Ivana.... In case you're new to the format, here are the "no brainer" adds for the week: Lenny Kravitz, Frank Black, Sundays "Wild Horses" (you know that song from your days in AOR), Thomas Dolby "I Love You Goodbye" (my guilty pleasure) and (of course) Einsturzende Neubauten.....Make sure you catch Warner Bros. exec. Jeff Gold on "Seinfeld" this Thursday. He looks pretty sassy wrapped in a towel, don't you think?

GIL & GENE DISCOUNT RECORDS, TUCSON

Since writing about radio geeks week after week has become so tiresome, we were thrilled to receive fanmail from Gil and Gene at Discount Records in Tucson. Since Ivana met these two when they drove all the way to Phoenix because they heard she'd be there, she was particularly excited by the line in the letter about "we'll be your humble servants for life." Visions of cornering them for all-night rants about Big Star, Nick Drake and Jellyfish are almost more than she can bear.

SUGAR

by Darryl Morden

Though the response to Sugar has been very positive, did you worry about people saying you were just trying to go back to the trio thing?

Hopefully, everything since '87 has been moving forward, though some of the steps have been a bit of head scratching. Regarding the three-piece thing, the only time I haven't been in a three-piece was the "Black Sheets" tour and I guess some of the solo stuff. I guess this is a return to — if anything else — working with friends... people whose time I enjoy as opposed to working with just back-up players. I think that was a problem. Those people had no real involvement in the music. I was showing them how and what to play. After a while, spiritually, that really doesn't go anywhere... it isn't very creative. I prefer people having a say in it.

So you got tired of being in charge?

I don't mind being in charge; if people aren't lock-stepped, then there's really nothing defeating. But if you're in charge of nothing, it doesn't make any difference. Everybody's got input on this... Everybody's doing promotional work, too. It's a lot more fun that way.

What was the first song you wrote specifically for Sugar?

"Helpless." That was one of the first ones that clicked out of the batch. Songs like "The Act We Act," "Hoover Damn" and "I Can't Change Your Mind" ended up fleshed out a lot more. I had a concept to see what would work... knowing what was good or bad and what would be shelved.

Are you still living in a countryside environment or are you more urban now?

I've been living in the New York area for the past couple of years.

How does the environment

Bob Mould is the master of sonic massages for the ear canals... walls of guitar fuzz and wail you can hum along to, perfected through his years in the '80s with underground indie heroes Hüsker Dü. He made a strategically acoustic-entrenched retreat with his 1987 solo album, "Workbook," then turned the volume back up for the bleak, bile-filled "Black Sheets Of Rain."

With his new trio, "Sugar," he moves one step back, two steps forward. Working with bassist Dave Barbe, formerly of Mercyland, and drummer Malcolm Travis, a vet of Boston's Human Sexual Response and the Zulus, who were produced by Mould, their Rykodisc debut, "Copper Blue," is rife with static-cling melodics and Mould's dizzy buzz-saw excursions. Though his recordings are often emotional implosions and then explosive releases, Mould is by nature a shy, soft-spoken man, thoughtful though sometimes circular in his answers. A self-confessed fan of manic-depressive distortopop, HITS' bellhop to the stars Darryl "Rigor" Morden awakened from his stupor long enough to chat up Mould about this new life chapter.

"I HAD A GREAT MANY IDEAS THAT NEVER GOT FLESHED OUT."

affect the way you write? For example, "Workbook" seemed to come out of living in the country.

To a degree. I think you get somewhat of a different perspective from living in the city, but I don't think it affects you as much as a rural environment.

What did you get out of doing those two solo albums before launching into a more cooperative band situation again?

I had a great many ideas that never got fleshed out. When Hüsker Dü ended, I had ideas within my own head I'd never had time to really think about. Without having reconciled whatever things I had and taking a good hard look at myself, the stuff I'm doing now couldn't have happened — all the changing, eliminating and adding... as it still goes through today.

You once told me about seeing Richard Thompson play, and just looking at your hands wondering what you were doing wrong. How do you rate your guitar playing now?

[Laughs.] Probably less and getting worse.

You're still one of the loudest guitarists who can still carry a tune.

That's always been my style... my guitar playing is pretty recognizable by now. ■

POST MODERN

POMO PICKS

Edited by Karen Glauber

Robyn Hitchcock & The Egyptians, "Respect" (A&M): Ahh, the music of the master. The dulcet and sentient wisdom of the sensei reaffirms our aural desires and expectations. The father of the "body post-Modern" bestows upon the faithful an offering of deep introspection and artistic revelation, and provides us with a surprisingly unobscured path by which to follow. On what is perhaps Robyn's most direct effort to date, any mechanisms of the merely familiar are eschewed in favor of organicity and candor. Hear and understand. (Joe Fleischer)

Poster Children, "Tool Of The Man" (Sire/Reprise): Of all the bands in all the gin joints in all the world, no one is as revealing and emotional as the sweetly droning Poster Children. "Tool Of The Man" effortlessly locates my brain's pleasure center and plugs directly in, producing a lasting hallucinogenic calm. The swirling geometric grind that marked the high points of both "Flower Plover" and "Daisy Chain Reaction" spirals to its non-Euclidean apex on this entrancing elpee. Burn your protractor and throb. (Neville Hacking-Cough)

Best Kissers In The World, "Puddin'" (MCA): Bst kssrs n/wrld sk alt riot grrrls 4 gd tms, lng slo dp wt ksss & PoMo hts. Blk jns, Docs & indi cred a mst. These handsome gents make a noise of undeniable warmth, integrity and charm, that's fairly dripping in bald-faced passion. No self-conscious shoe-gazing here; just one heartfelt, delicious smack after another. Best Kissers will doubtless be responsible for many a youthful indulgence of fleshy delights. Don't bother to resist, it's positively catching. (C.K. Dexter-Haven)

School Of Fish, "Human Cannonball" (Capitol): Okay, all you boneheads who loved "3 Strange Days" but failed to get much deeper into the elpee, I have some friendly advice vis-a-vis "Human Cannonball"—don't lame out this time! Tight, provocative songwriting, Josh Clayton-Felt's plaintive vocals and Matt Wallace's thunderous, towering production make this a recording to live with and constantly rediscover. Tender and dark, sensitive and ballistic, "Human Cannonball" inflicts a lasting and delightful aural concussion. (C.K. Dexter-Haven)

POMO MUGS

DOS DOLLS: Sylvain Sylvain from the World Famous New York Dolls hangs with Johnny Rzeznick from the World Famous Goo Goo Dolls at the World Famous KROQ. They're beautiful, they wear jaunty caps, sure, but when asked for advice by the lovelorn who called KROQ's "Loveline," all they could say was, "Gosh, math is hard." Some stereotypes bear up under a close reading pretty darn well.

WOW! DIG THAT HEAVY POMO SCENE: REM's Peter Dinklage (left) and PoMo great Tommy Keene (right) flank the Goo Goo Dolls backstage at the Whiskey in Los Angeles. The guy in the Circle Jerks shirt in front is of course the singer from punk great Mad Society. Apparently he's got that Jay North/Webster/Ricky Schroeder thing or something. Anyway, he won't talk about it.

BRAND ON THE RUN!

Put those generic labels down and go the extra mile for genuine Brand Nubian! Clever and controversial, tuneful and inspirational, the new-and-improved Brand Nubian leaves the old model in the dust with "Love Me Or Leave Me Alone."

Allen Thomas of WUSS-Atlantic City pestered us for another roll of nickels and then said, "It's a great song! They've proven without a doubt that they can hold their own without Grand Puba." Rap jock Colby Colb of WUSL in Philly, one of many Rap jocks spinning endless Nubian, told us, "The song is pullin' heavy phones. It's an instant hit right out of the box!"

Our old pal, Elektra VP of Urban Marketing/Promotion, Joe Morrow would rather fight than switch. Said the venerable veep, "Brand Nubian's first album really set them up for this time out. Sales are grrrrrrreat! The album, 'In God We Trust,' sold 47,000 copies in 10 days, and we're fast (400,000 pieces) approaching GOLD!"

Joe Long of Birdells buttoned-holed us in Brooklyn: "They're doing amazing business! People have been waiting for it forever! It's selling so well because of the in-store play and my smartly arranged posters." Yeah, Joe, they're really swell. Look, let go, okay? We saw them already. Sheesh. And we thought we were losers.

PD's mandate regarding the station's music. One jock said he won't recognize the MD's authority since he was hired by the PD. Something's wrong with this picture. When a PD delegates authority, the boundaries must be clear. A meeting should define expectations and a memo should follow. A memo should also go to the staff congratulating the person and explaining the person's authority, and that staff cooperation is appreciated. This will save a lot of time and frustration. The alternative? The PD ends up wasting time putting out fires, quelling staff wars and massaging bent egos, while the competition is parking its boot in your station's butt. Be thorough and concise in the beginning and you'll have more time to kill the competition. Later.

A black and white promotional photograph of the hip-hop group Joe Public. Three members are shown: one is crouching in the foreground, another stands behind him to the left, and two others stand to the right, one with his back to the camera. They are all wearing leather jackets and dark clothing. The background is a bright, outdoor setting.

This One's
For You

This one's a smooth jam. This one's from the heart. This one's the 4th one from their self-titled debut album "Joe Public." This one's got a tasty new video that's on BET in rotation on Video Vibrations and out of the box on MTV Jams. This One's For You. And you know who you are.

INSIDE NEWS: Spike Lee joined KJLH-L.A. in celebrating Black History Month as his Spike's Joint West stores participated in the station's Malcolm X promotion. KJLH's morning show featured one question per day regarding Black history. Correct callers won a copy of The Making Of Malcolm X, autographed by Lee. A drawing of all the winners was held for an "X" jacket from the filmmaker's store valued at $375... INSIDE RADIO: WKYS-Washington, DC, PD Barbara Prieto is thrilled to announce that Randy Dennis has joined the morning crew, which also features News Director John Irving, who is responsible for the prize-winning "Socks Report" and Producer/Comic / Psycho Tony Perkins. Randy who has worked in Boston, New Orleans, Atlanta and Baltimore, comes to DC to be closer to gal-pal Tipper Gore... Former WHJX-Jacksonville, FL, PD Gary Young has joined the competition, WJBT, in the same role. J.C. Floyd, who filled in as PD, returns to his OM role and of course the PGA tour... At WVEE-Atlanta, Mike Roberts has stepped down as PD while retaining his morning show. # QUIET STORM

INSIDE DOPE

SOFT & WARM

STORM WATCH: Kandace, our Siren of Storm, took a break from talks with the Duke of Downpour, where she beseeched said lord to quell the incessant watery inundation of our bonny kingdom of Slammin' Oaks lest we be forced to commute by kayak, to give this week's update. Rudy V. of KMJQ-Houston (pictured), is warmed by Rachelle Ferrell's duet with Will Downing, "Nothin' Has Ever Felt Like This" (Manhattan/Capitol), which he says is drawing tremendous requests, and Michael Cooper's "So Good" (Reprise). Said our featured jock, "We explore entire CDs. We often go on gut feeling and usually do well at picking HITS." ...STORM NEWS: Frankie Beverly & Maze's first release in four years, "After The Morning After" (WB) will take them over the top. Look out for it. Smooth sailing...

RIGHT CENTURY, WRONG SHOW: KJMZ-Dallas PD Tom Casey is shown here with the "Kid O' Dynamite," Jimmie Walker, just after Casey finished telling him how much he loved his hilarious show "What's Happening." Before we could stop him Casey said, "Yo, J.J. what was up with your mom, though. Was that some sort of glandular thing or something?"

WE'LL MEET YOU AT CLUB, BUB: Here's Vaughn Harper of WBLS-New York standing between Atlantic recording artists M&M, and wishing with all his might that he were a peanut. Vaughn then turned to Atlantic's Big Bub, far left, and said, "Don't I hear your manager calling you?"

CAFFEINE CLAIMS TWO: Tragically, this was the last photo taken of Don Powers, KPRS-Kansas City Morning Guy, and BET's Angela Stribbling just before they exploded from the effects of the disease that claims millions of radio folk per year known as Yuban Syndrome.

TOUGH LOVE, RCA STYLE: RCA's Byron Pitts has never heard one of his artists whine about East Coast PA stops since he began carrying that lovely cane, which by the way has a pointy end for extra traction in the snow. Seen here are SWV and Rumpetilskinz on the very best behavior with WBSL-New York PD Mike Love.

JESUS H. GARBER, WHO ARE THESE LOSERS?: Scotti Bros. consultant Jesus Garber, kind soul that he is, agreed to look after the entire JAMS staff, sans Darryl Lindsey of course, if we promised to pay off his Super Bowl gambling debts incurred because of his fondness for Buffalo Wings. Pictured left to right are: JAMS' J.J. Johnson, Martin Kember and Shon-Shon of AZ-1, JAMS' Kandace Taylor, AZ-1's L.A. Dre, JAMS' Kerry D'Oyen, AZ-1's/KJLH, Jeff Gill and Garber, who said, "No matter how you add it up, it just wasn't worth it."

DOWN WIT'...

Brian A. Samson: Brian has accomplished a great deal in his hip-hop career. Getting his start in the industry while at KUOP, U. of the Pacific, and KUSF at SFSU, he jocked and produced while interning at Gavin. After a run as Gavin Rap Editor and heading his own promotion company, Brian brought his progressive marketing ideas to Mercury in New York, where he is currently Director of Rap and Alternative R&B Marketing and Promotion. Said our guest, "It's important that record companies, especially with Rap, have a better understanding of regions and be flexible and creative in employing marketing and promotion strategies. Listen to what Record Pool jocks are spinnin' and be aware of upcoming local events. This is where Rap marketing is headed." On the strength.

PEDDLE TO THE METAL

FRIEND TO ALL

(Lonn Friend is on his first-ever non-record company funded vacation. This week's column was written by Kristina Estlund.)

Well they've done it! Mr. and Mrs. Friend have finally taken a bonafide vacation in the Caymans full of sunning, scuba-ing and sweetening up to each other. He's only called me a couple of times just to goad — while they were relaxing in 83 degrees of sun, we were swimming in torrential downpours... Meanwhile, I have taken over his office, complete with the precise foot placement upon his desk, eaten lunches at the Ivy and the Palm, delegated which calls I will take, decided which acts to break, featured all my favorite bands in the next issue of RIP, replaced my face over his on the many schmooze shots and put my name in place of his on the gold and platinum records... I must say that I've been gettin' a bit excited with all the recent exposures onstage lately. First it was Greta's drummer, then Kik Tracee's bassist Rob Grad, now Jackyl's Jesse James Dupree! What am I talkin' about? These guys have been performing stark nekked! And for those who don't know, Jesse will appear — sans clothes — in an upcoming Playgirl... Caught Dream Theatre's packed show at the Palace (these guys have a Rush-like following) before waltzing into Roxbury like I was someone to catch Funktional. Their female lead singer is just amazing; catch her if you can... Being that Brad (yes, we're still together) has been scouting the clubs for Bobby Carlton, I've been experiencing a lot of the unsigned scene and one question keeps coming to mind — why hasn't anyone signed Stikkity yet? Don't let the name fool you; vocalist Vincent is Christ... Thanks Angee for the Universal Tix, now who do we have to beg for Jesus Christ Superstar Tix?... My apologies to Lisa Millman for missing th Faith Healers show, my 'hood was floodin'... Check out Bakers Pink and Quicksand, the stations will love this shit!... This just in: Warrant has canceled their upcoming shows until further notice due to Jani Lane, who is suffering from exhaustion, dehydration and nodes on his vocal chords... If you're reading this before the weekend, check out "A Current Affair Extra" on death metal. The tabloid TV show sent a crew to visit Ace's in Tampa during an in-store with Cannibal Corpse, Unleashed and Epidemic, following them to their concert later that evening... My special thanks for making my week of power-mad wench the best to Barb (WB), Lisa (Geffen) and Mel (Alive)... I love you guys... Estlund out...

Warrant: Needs to vacation with the Friends.

OVER THE EDGE

Phone it. While some of you have your Top 5 chart numbers equal to your Top 5 phones (like KZAK's Chris Payne), some of you don't. WQNY's John Lovely told us if he did, Slayer and Metallica would reign supreme. Rage holding steady at Top 5 phones, while the chart reflects differently. Guess everyone wants to hear them yell "fuck," but not everyone can play it... No surprises with those Infectious Grooves dudes getting Most Added airplay as well as being featured in our new Top 5 In-Store Play column. Nudeswirl debuts high, thanks mostly to "7 Sharp" off their self-titled debut. Glad to see Deep Jimi getting adds. If you're hesitant about this one, don't be. Nuclear Assault continues to reach you guys and add tour dates. Reich gets top phone slot and we understand their parking lot show at Tower/Phoenix was out of control... The Box Top 5: Green Jello, Metallica, Faith No More, Pantera, Kiss... Ask KCLB's Shawn LaBar where his truck is... Congrats to KSKE's Mike Bassett, who got married on Groundhog Day. Neither bride nor groom saw their shadows, so Mike went back to work... WB's Metal World News is great. Call Linnea Nan at (818) 953-3692 for your copy. Ditto for Spew, from Atlantic staff, spearheaded by Silvio Bonvini. Spew has replaced Metal Matters in order to include the label's alternative bands. Initial mailing list was Ace Frehley's fan club and has now expanded to a readership of 75,000 fans and industry folks. Call Silvio at (212) 275-2117... Kyle Obergfell has split from KMSA. Wouldn't look for a new metal show in Colorado Springs any time soon... Proper Grounds' "Jezebel" should be added to your playlist this week... Circus of Power nails a month of dates with labelmates Alice in Chains beginning 3/26... By the time you read this, we'll all know who NARAS voted for top metal honors now that Metallica wasn't nominated. Speaking of Metallica, did you catch their MTV Rockumentary over the weekend? Interesting to note that they credited their big break to opening for Ozzy on his '86 tour. Is this the same band who now won't let anyone open for them? Hello?... Attention radio. If we don't have your retail info, time is running out. Call us now... Thanks to those who supported the Grammy Billiards bash last Sunday. We raised over ten grand. Not bad for an afternoon....

Infectious Grooves: Movin' booties coast to coast.

WATCH OUT FOR...

Green Jello. Cereal Killer (Home Video, Zoo 72445-11036) The track "Three Little Pigs" is getting massive airplay at those aggressive AORs while the video is garnering top requests at both MTV and The Box. You can get this on the home video package or CD 5 "Green Jello Suxs" 14057-1. Zoo debuts "Cereal Killer Soundtrack" 11038-4 on CD/cassette March 16.

WEASEL O' THE WEEK

DAN "SPIT" FITZGERALD HITS, Sherman Oaks, CA

Dan "Oh Danny Boy" Fitzgerald has been part of this rag for six long, trying years. In charge of rounding up the retail research for the Metal section, this guy gets more abuse in any given week than most people get in a lifetime. When he's not hanging on the phone line, he's busy trying to translate Thelma & Louise-isms into language the rest of the world can understand. Tho' born in Cleveland, Dano has lived in stormy SoCal since '69, making him a native fer sure, dude. He attended Cal State Northridge, majoring in classical guitar (how the hell did he end up here?), but left to pursue a professional career in skateboarding (isn't that a contradiction in terms?). Dan's pet peeve is "The stores that aren't ready for my call after years of doing this." If he ran his own store, the three retail mavens he'd pick to make it all happen would be (Ace's) Frank Dancsecs, (Danny's) Danny Markmann and (Heavy Metal Shop's) Kevin Kirk. When the Dan-man isn't making the phone scene, you can find him rehearsing with his band, "Face Plant." Major influence? Thin (Yo Dan, it's 1993) Lizzy, all the more reason why... we love ya.

When WGIR's Todd Nichols got told his station was going moldy, he grabbed his pal Sled and those New York Sunday Times cover gals L7 and took a slow boat to China. They've been doing overnights at K-Y-US for the past few weeks now and have called in to let us know that their all-Hula format is working well for them. What they didn't tell us is that in order to transmit, Todd stands in the parking lot with a wire hanger coming out of his left nostril and stands on this right foot while following the sun with his forehead. Last week however, he fell right on his ass and ended up with the shiner that you may or may not see in the above photo depending on how many cocktails our printer has prior to setting this page. Todd is presently looking for a new gig and we're sorry to tell you we may even have an aircheck or two lying around in case you're interested in hiring this poor slob.

WHEELS & DEALS

By Steve Pross

Eric Greenspan was collecting deal memos at the door. Well, not quite, but Engines Of Agression will certainly have a deal soon if you believe all the talk generated by their English Acid show. Gary Gersh, Patrick Clifford, Ron Oberman, Larry Hanby, Tom Whalley, Jeff Aldrich and Bryan Huttenhower were just some of the veeeps in attendance. Funny enough, none of the street people I talked to liked the band... Has anyone noticed that almost every week another club closes in Los Angeles? Last Friday, I went to see San Diego's Inch at Pico Blvd. hangout Jabberjaw only to find it closed by the Dep. of Health... Conventional wisdom says: 1) Despite the ever increasing number of A&R and publishing types (including Michael Ostin last week) attending the Wild Colonials Tuesday night shows at Cafe Largo, the band will eventually sign with Def American. 2) Big Chief to Revolution. 3) Arista to hire a certain SF PD for a New York A&R post. 4) "Yo MTV!" house band, Repercussions to Warner Bros, not A&M... First Pond, then Hazel, now Neros Rome, Simon Potts is the latest industry-ite to make the trip to Oregon...

Lynched

Tim Devine: Look out, he's excited.

MCA A&R consultant Scott Weiss is organizing a two-night showcase at the Middle East Cafe in Boston on March 25 and 26 for his favorite local acts. See you all there... The President's brother, Roger, has a record deal with Atlantic. NBA All-Star Shaquille O'Neal raps with Fu Schnickens on a forthcoming single for Jive. Who's next? Charles Barkley? Seems Qwest's Hugo Burnham was seen courtside talking to Sir Charles at a recent Clippers game, and the Suns' outspoken forward was spotted at the bar in the St. Francis during the Gavin convention... Two coups for Mechanic, as the Tad deal is finally done and Murder Inc., comprised of ex-members of Ministry, Killing Joke, Revolting Cocks, etc., join the roster... Tim Devine is excited about his newest project, the soundtrack for David Lynch's TV mini-series, "Wild Palms," with music supplied by Ryuichi Sakamoto... Mitchell Cohen bails Arista for Columbia. Which is unfortunate for the Lawrence, Kansas band Stick... Jef Jacquin no longer at Radioactive... Road hockey players wanted: Volunteers are needed to represent the red, white and blue in the first annual Road Hockey Challenge at SXSW. I have been placed in the unenviable position of captain of the American team, who will be playing against a team of Canadian upstarts (eh?) on Saturday, March 20 at the Austin Convention Center. If you're interested leave a message for me at (310) 281-9618. Buzzbin: Spark, El Mag-nifico, Lin De Peyer, Tar.

MINI MUGS

DOLLY'S WUNSCH BUNCH: Legendary country diva Dolly Parton knocks down a few bottles of Snapple to mark the success of her hit single, "Eagle When She Flies," from her new "Slow Dancing With The Moon" album with Sony Nashville President Roy Wunsch (right) and co-producer/Columbia VP A&R Steve Buckingham, who are celebrating because they've managed to escape a Holly Gleason conversation in less than three hours.

DELIRIOUS DOWN UNDER: Lead singer/lyricist Mandawuy Yunupingu of Hollywood Records aboriginal rockers Yothu Yindu learns his latest copy of HITS has been confiscated at the Australian border under the country's "Worthless Materials" act. Actually, Mandawuy is also overcome at receiving the "Australian of the Year" award in Sydney, honoring the performer's achievements for distinguished performance in the national and international arena. Second place went to Yahoo Serious and third place honors were awarded to "that cute little Koala bear" in those Qantas commercials."

ZIGGY ZAGS: Virgin Records artist Ziggy Marley and brother Stephen Marley put the finishing touches on their latest album at the legendary Tuff Gong Studios in Jamaica before smoking three spliffs and falling asleep at the mixing board. The disc is due out in April. Ziggy and Stephen are, of course, the sons of the Ghost of Christmas Past, Jacob Marley. Has Mike Greene stopped talking yet? We wanna go to the Grammy parties!

BREAKOUTS

Hot new or resurging albums as reported by the nation's leading record merchandisers

Quite a wide array of musical styles see hefty first-week sales with Poison taking Metal to the head of the class. Also, strong out-of-the-box is rapper 2 Pac, looking very good with this sophomore project as well as the funk-rock of Infectious Grooves, featuring members of Suicidal Tendencies. Lynyrd Skynyrd takes some front-cover ink with their southern blend of rock as Regina Belle comes in with a solid Urban entry.

RERAP

by Mark Pearson

With NARM starting next week, I thought I should deal with some hard-hitting retail subjects this week. Y'know, the topics that everyone wants to find out about. Like, is the Magic going to be playing in town, can we catch Shaquille O'Neal up close and who's holding on to the major tickets? Is Disney World really all that different than Disneyland? Why are the only good King Kong rides in Orlando and Los Angeles instead of New York, where he broke into show business?... And speaking of show biz (they don't call me "The Czar of the Segue" for nothing), ABC Late-Night is going on location at the NARM confab. According to network executive producer David Saltz, the convention will be featured in a segment of the 90-minute "Spring Break Rave" special set to air Saturday, April 3. Recording artist Jeffrey Osborne will be ABC's "on scene" reporter, conducting interviews with artists, industry personalities (!) and some of the "behind the scenes" activity (Ed. note: Zzzzz) Performances by a variety of entertainers will also be included... In the light of the new MTV Latin America available in the U.S. as well as Central and South America, the seminar at NARM on Latin Music should prove a profitable one. Latin sales are no longer just a Florida and California phenomenon... Every week, there's another rumor about Blockbuster buying someone else. A couple of weeks ago, it was Super Club and this week's rumor du jour is that they are trying to acquire the Harmony House chain with 30 retail stores based out of Detroit. So far, no confirmation either way, but if they're so itchy to buy something, I've got a condo in Agoura Hills available real cheap... Abbey Road will be holding the first of two 1993 wholesale dealer meetings created to inform their independent and chain stores of new releases and products on Thursday, April 22 from 4 pm - 10 pm. Last October, at their first show ever, Abbey Road had over 1,200 people attend and it was a real kick in the keister. This year's theme is "Your Place To Be In '93" (Ron, you wordsmith, you) and will be held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Long Beach. For info, call Ron Simms at (714)-546-7177, ext. 270... Is Billy Ray Cyrus going to see the same kind of TV-related sales explosion we're experiencing with Michael Jackson? Music City Record Distributors and Cats retail chain's Larry Webb in Nashville, isn't too sure it will help the LP, especially since the new single has a live cut of "Achy Breaky Heart" as a B-side... Kevin Sheehan, President of Hear Music Store and Catalog, has appointed former Rainbow Records S.F. buyer Lee Negip as Director of Retail Development. Negip's responsibilities will include managing the pilot retail outlet in Berkeley... I end the column this week on a sad note. Our very good friends Sandy Bean (VP Advertising at Harmony House) and Bob Bean (BMG branch mgr. in Detroit) have informed us of the death of their grandson, Matthew Robert Vanhees, February 5. He was just two months seven days old. Our thoughts are with you.

Achy Breaking Again?

Billy Ray Cyrus: Will TV exposure equal boffo sales?

MINI MUGS

SOMEBODY LOVE US: Reunion/RCA recording artist Michael W. Smith (c) promises the keys of heaven to RCA Records Label Sr. Vice President of Marketing Randy Goodman and President Joe Galante at the recent BMG Distribution convention held in Los Angeles in exchange for them promoting the "hell" out of his new album, "Change Your World" and rapidly climbing hit single, "Somebody Love Me." After the two confessed their sins, Smith said he'd have to try to get them a plus-one in Purgatory instead.

THEY WILL ALWAYS HATE US: Arista executives receive multi-platinum plaques commemorating the sales of more than six million copies of the original soundtrack album of "The Bodyguard" and the six chins of label Sr. VP Production and Manufacturing God Milton Sincoff (r). Celebrating the occasion are the following shiny, happy people, who are just about to discover what the RIAA charges for those fancy frames (l-r): Sr. VP Jack Rovner, Exec VP/IGM Roy Lott, President Clive Davis, Sr. VP Promotion Rick Bisceglia, RIAA President Jay Berman, Sr. VP Sales & Distribution Jim Chiado and Sincoff.

MENACING SOCIETY: New Line Cinema and Jive Records announce a deal to release the soundtrack of the upcoming urban drama "Menace II Society," which will include cuts from label artists Too $hort, R. Kelly, Hi-Five and Spice-1. On-hand to make sure there's enough security when the film debuts in Westwood May 26 are the following power-brokers (l-r): New Line Chairman/CEO Robert Shaye, New Line Sr. VP of Music and VP of Production Toby Emmerich, Jive Sr. VP of Artist Development Ann Carli and Jive Sr. VP/IGM Barry Weiss.

WAVELENGTH

by Lenny Beer & Michael St. John

Top story of the week is the fallout of the Shamrock/Malrite merger (takeover?). WEGX Philly does not renew deals for morning giant John Lander & PD Brian Phillips. Lander's morning show co-hosts Danny Bonaduce & Patty Steele are moving on with Bonaduce heading to WLUP-AM Chicago and Steele reuniting with husband Steve Kingston for air work at Z100 Secaucus. Rumors are swirling about a format switch to Post Modern in Philly or a male AC format similar to WMMO Orlando (all Don Henley, all the time), but only one thing is sure. They will not remain Top 40. We also hear talk of Lander/Steele, who were #3 in the market, fielding offers from two other Philly stations and one in NY. Rumor also has Fred Jacobs as consultant.... Kevin McCabe exits his MD position at HOT97 NY to the charts department at the industry bible, Billboard. Michael Ellis is moving up the organization.... Congrats to Epic's Suzie Sponder on her promotion to Director of Top 40, replacing Shadow Steele & based out of L.A. Sponder has done a great job in Philly, and will be a welcome addition to the West Coast. If she does well, her next job will be as a major market PD.... In KC, KBEQ changes format to Country with Top 40 format now the exclusive domain of KISF.... Action also in Milwaukee as PD Gregg Cassidy steps down and consultant Bob West takes over interim. MD Chris Kerr is also out.... New PD at Post Modern formatted KEDG Las Vegas is Jay Taylor.... WPLJ New York morning producer Bruce Maiman is the new morning jock at WKSE Buffalo....

Here's WKSI Greensboro PD Rich Bailey & new wife Carole posing with four dead people.
